

Echirich

Immunostimulant & Disinfectant

Description:

Echinacea is one of the oldest plants that have been used on herbal medicine. Echirich is a single herbs preparation of Echinacea which contains main active constituents; are the Alkamides, Glycoprotein, Caffeic acid derivatives (Cichoric acid and Echinocide), Acts as an anti-viral, antiseptic and modulates the immune system presence of Polysaccharides. Echinocide and Cichoric acid Protect collagen from harmful effect. Echinacea purpura acts against Influenza, Herpes and skin inflammation virus caused by blisters. Used as contusive treatment for chronic infection of the respiratory tract, cold-cough and urinary tract infection.

Composition:

Each capsule contains

Dry extract Echinacea 450 mg
and other ingredients

(Ref: Echinacea, B.N.U.F)

Unani Medicine

Indication :

Immunodeficiency, Sinusitis, Common cold, Pharyngitis, Cough, Rhinitis, Fever, Otitis & Urethritis.

Dosage :

1 capsule 1-2 times daily (Maximum 8 week) or directed by the registered physician.

Side Effect :

Due to excess dosage short-term fever, Nausea, vomiting, skin rash, itching, swelling of the face, dyspnoea, drowsiness and low blood pressure has been obserbed. High dosage of Echirich adversely acts on premature ovum.

Contraindication :

Echirich is contraindicated in Multiple sclerosis, Leucocytosis, Collagen disease and AIDS.

Use during Pregnancy and Lactation :

Use of Echirich is prohibited during pregnancy and lactation.

Presentation :

3×10 capsule Blister Box.

Storage :

Keep in a dry and cool place, away from light and moisture. Keep all medicines out of reach of the children.

Neptune Laboratories Ltd.

Gazipur-Bangladesh